one old route by Court
square

It was dark before
we got to Scurry
JN went on to Sloasburg
and stopped at Mrs Taylors.

Aug 28

Ben Mt. Apple 7.30
went on by way of Hartford and Worcester
at the library of the Am Antiquarian Society
called on Mr. Hall and had a nice talk with
him. He hopes that I could publish my paper on the 4th of July Captivity

went by way of Worcester and would visit Harry Cannon had supper
and after staying
a while we went over to Wakefield

August 31 72

Central Sandwich

Went up to Blauvelt
and got some more
apple papers.

Then went to the Central Sandwich library

Sept 1. Osoyoos

C. Thompson

Harold & Jo Egan

Village. Saw the old ladies Mrs Beane and Mrs Willard also Mrs Mahal Welch. I had a long talk with them. They were very much pleased to hear of the Historical Movement and wished to visit it.

Also met at Charles Thompson & Mrs Jones, whose husband is formerly preacher at Mountmorice.

Sept 2 To —
Left about 5 o'clock
Saw Sassa, Ida not
back. Got paper
Cody pepper roots
Maples just turning
yellowish
Birches unchanged
Poplars
Chestnut a few red

Went to Saco (via Sanford) and found Frank C. Deering at home at his shore residence.

He very kindly took us up to his home in Saco, and showed us his great collection of historical books, including those of the Saco. He has a remarkable system of safe keeping the library. Doors being vaulted with combination locks down. He has made a specimen of interesting reproduction. He is an expert in this work. I found very new Saco with ^{possibly} ~~Hanson~~ but

He had perfect copies of some doubtful ones.
Then went to a shop
for the night.

Sept 3 to

April took me to the elevators, where I got on train for New York. The colonial car & coach

visited the Board West Point in the afternoon also Dr. H. H. H. who took me there. Later I spent the evening at Dr. H. and met his daughter and son-in-law, and

then some, all good
They took me to the train and I changed in
New York to the Train for Washington leaving
at 12:30 am.
